David Alexander Hired as Bellevue Union School District
Superintendent

(Will replace Alicia Henderson)

Dr. David C. Alexander has been named Bellevue Union School District's (BUSD) new Superintendent, the BUSD School Board announced. He will replace Superintendent Alicia Henderson who has taken a new position out of state.

Dr. Alexander currently serves as Superintendent of the Cottonwood Union School District, a position he has held since 2014. His twenty-seven years of experience in education include serving as a Principal in the Redding Elementary School District, the Director/Principal of the Paradise Unified School District Children's Community K-8 Charter School and a classroom teacher. He also serves as an Adjunct Professor, teaching in Preliminary Administrative Services and Master's Programs. Dr. Alexander is married and the father of four children.

Dr. Alexander was selected from a candidate pool of two-dozen applicants. Victor Ayala, president of the Board of Trustees notes, "After a very careful selection process and using the assistance of a community selection committee, the board has hired Dr. David Alexander as the new Superintendent for the Bellevue Unified School District. We would like to welcome Dr. Alexander and his family to our district. We are looking forward to a relationship that will strive to continue our district's success."

Dr. Alexander shared, "I'm thrilled to be joining the Bellevue Union School District Team. I look forward to working with Bellevue's dedicated and caring board members, staff, and community members continuing our commitment to ensure each and every student is inspired, challenged and achieves success."

The Bellevue Union School District is one of the largest K-6 elementary school districts in the county, with more than 1,800 students attending the Bellevue Elementary, Kawana Springs, Meadow View Elementary, Taylor Mountain Elementary and Stony Point Charter Schools.
